There will be no Congress, as the satisfy the just demands of Italy, and remove the two Emperors have agreed to settle their differences ! without the intervention of the neutral powers. of next month is spoken of as the time, at which the representatives of the parties interested will assemble, but the place of their doing so is not yet men The same correspondent learns, on very high acthority, that both Emperors are convinced that the bases for peace, which they so hastily agreed upon. are in many respects impracti able. The English journals continued to ridicule the terms of peace; and even the London Post, Lord Palmensyon's organ, had suddenly commenced an attack upon the proceedings at Villafranea. The Paris correspondent of the London News, after careful isquiry, affirms that the terms of the peace have not only occasioned a feeling of disappointment and even of indignation among all these who took a sincere interest in the object of the war, but have very seriously damaged and lowered the Emperor in the opinion of all classes of society.

FRANCE. The Emperor arrived at St. Cloud on Sunday merning, the 17th ult. At noon he attended mass, and immediately after received his ministers. In some quarters it appeared as if a reassuring manifesto from the Emperor was looked for.

The announcement of peace is said to have aiready caused signs of commercial improvement in The Peris correspondent of the London Herald says that the greatest activity prevailed all along the French coast. The channel coast was being fortified, and from Cherbourg to Dunkirk earth bat-eputations to Garibaldi It was reported that Sardinia had recalled her rpresentatives from Tuneany and Modena, and that the Provisional Governments of Tuscany and Modena were organizing forces to oppose the return of the respective Grand Dukes.

SARDINIA. The London Times' correspondent at Turin says that the prace has produced the greatest exasperation and dejection in that capital. The Emperor Napoleon is accused of being a traitor to Italy, and his portraits have been withdrawn from the shop windows to prevent their being broken. Two hundred French policemen were at the Turin reception of the Emperor. The King's manner to ward the Emperor was cold, and there were no vivas' from the people for him. By the Turin correspondent of the London News the Picdmontese are described as being a prey to grief and stupor in consequence of the peace, which leaves Sardinia without a fortified frontier. The Opinion of Turin does not conseal the dissatisfaction with which it sees Venice remain in the bonds of Austria. It attributes Count Cavour's resignation to the insufficiency of the terms of peace.

PRUSSIA: The following order of the day to the army has been published: "At the moment when the war broke out between two neighboring great Powers, I had ordered the army to be placed in readiness for war, in order to maintain the position of power which belongs to Prussia. The danger which threatened us then is over. While you were still marching to eccupy the positions I had ordered for you, the beligerent Powers concluded peace. Your advance had snown our firm re-olution to maintain our frontiers and those of Germany inviolate. Whatever might be the destinies of war, you had shown the readiness

I had expected from you, and have maintained in general a diguity worthy of Prussia. You have made many personal sacrifices, and I express to you "THE PRINCE RECENT OF PRUSSIA." The Prussian Gozette publishes a leading article in defence of the attitude taken by Prussia during the last few months, and endeavors to prove that its policy has prevented a universal war. The article lays the chief stress on the fact that a real and substantial basis for joining in war was wanting. The article goes on thus:

"Prussia can draw her sword for German and Prussian interests, but not for maintaing or re-establishing a state of affairs in Italy which Austria herself has recognised as not maintainable, nor for for sustaining isolated articles of the treatics of 1815. "The proposals for mediation made by Prussia were far more favorable than the preliminaries of peace which have now been agreed upon."

WHY AUSTRIA WAS DEFRATED. -Mr. RATMOND, of the New York Times, writing to his paper from Italy, since the declaration of peace in that conntry, attributes the successive defeats of the Austrian army to the "incompetency and vascillating presumption" of the Austrian Emperor. He says that the forces of the army are very large and well appointed, its generals men of ability, experience, and unquestioned courage, its artillery numerous and well handled, its cavalry acknowledged to be the Selling Agents for the Baltimore Market for the following ell best in Europe, its soldiers brave, firm, and loyal, and that its positions have, in nearly every case, been selected with skill and admirable judgment. On the other hand, speaking of the Austrian Emperor, he says.

"He is a young man, without military experience, and of only theoretic military knowledge, and am bitious to a degree which makes him absurdly jeal-ous of the generals by whom he is surrounded, Farnham's and Evans, Sengrave & Co.'s whose advice he constantly rejects, and whose well-IIF Letters of inquiry in relation to the markets, &c., and moment. Amusements Denounced.—The Catholic Bishop of Montreal has addressed a circular to his clergy, calling upon them, as soon as possible, to pronounce from their pulpits "a strong warning against the opera, the theatre, circus, and other amusements of a similar nature, which at the present moment are a similar nature, which at the present moment are a sound of the property of the property of the School, address the Principal at Speamors Mills, Tenn.

may furnish a solution of this remark: "I believe that the facts indicated in outline in my letter of last Friday the determination, namely, of the Prince Regest of Pressia to strike in acaffair on which we are about to onter. France and Anstria will not be permitted to settle the Italian question on fete-a-tele, but that the nautral powers obscure sources of European disturbance hitherto furnished by that beautiful but unhappy country."

Ague Cure, ust been arranged at St. Cloud, and the carly part Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Hendache, or Bilious Hendache, and Billions Fevers, indeed for the whole class of discuses originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of minsmatic countries.

No one remedy is locater called for by the ne-cessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Pever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity. That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the commu-nities where it prevails. Procention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent atracks of this baleful dis-temper. This "Conn" expels the miasmatic possen of Fryan and Adva from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. on the first approach of its premountery symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where Feven and Advan prevails, every ody should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all — the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitu-tion. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasuatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Hendache, Blindness, Toothache, Earnelle, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spicen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Crun" expels the poison from quently cures them all altke. It is an involumble protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous discuses. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costicueux, Heartburn, Headsche, arising from disardered stomach, Nausca, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inection of the Borels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jamaine, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstraction of its functions. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so nume are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate disbeen restored from alarming and even desperate dis-eases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer besitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our elimate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have felled and been discarded, this has usined friend, we core tried conferred benefits on the sined friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the llicted they can never forget, and produced cures too unerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.
